Airxcel Inc. acquires Elkhart's Dicor

Airxcel Inc. announced Sept. 30 that it has acquired Dicor Corporation.

Elkhart-based Dicor Corporation has been an RV industry supplier for over 32 years, and boasts a collection of affiliate brands that include Dicor Products, United Shade, Vixen Composites and Seal Design.

Dicor and its affiliates are well known for providing innovative RV roofing systems, wheel componentry, window shades, FRP, composite paneling, window sealing as well as a wide array of aftermarket care and repair products.

"The Airxcel management team has a deep level of respect for Dicor Corporation, its products, heritage and dedication to customer service. We are pleased to welcome Dicor Corporation and its talented team into Airxcel" said Jeff Rutherford, Airxcel President and CEO.

"The Dicor team is looking forward to joining the Airxcel family. We have long been an admirer of Airxcel's leading product initiatives and their culture of excellence. Being associated with Airxcel will allow each entity to benefit from the other's key competencies and drive higher levels of customer satisfaction," stated Gregg Fore, Dicor President.
